

Ministry Coordinator Council Report
March 2014

1. The fundraiser at Chili's sponsored by the Adult Discipleship team earned $100. The next fundraiser will be at Sweet Tomatoes on May 19 from 5-8pm. Events for June and July are in the planning stages.
2. The Adult Discipleship team has begun to prepare material for Adult Sunday School studies for the fall. Studies will also be offered this summer. If the worship schedule changes, then studies will be offered concurrently with at least one service.
3. Come and See (stage 1) for FaithWalk #6 will begin May 11 at 10:15am. Come and Serve (stage 4) for FaithWalk #5 will move to 12:30pm on May 11.
4. Dana Hackett, Matt Mordini, and Cindy and Austin Bowles were unable to be present at the Easter Vigil and will affirm their baptism in the next few weeks during a worship service.
5. Terry Lux (working out of town the past few weeks) was able to be home for the weekend and he was baptized at the Easter Vigil. I will continue the Come and Serve conversation with Terry via email and phone.
6. Youth and Family Ministry earned more than $650 dollars with the Easter breakfast.
7. A gathering to connect the 20-30 age group is being planned.
8. I will begin conversations with current team and ministry leaders about their ministry experience this past year and what their ministry plans are for the coming year.
