

Ministry Coordinator Council Report
August 2014

1. I am mostly on vacation for this week. I don't have much "new" to report since my last report.
2. FaithWalk Come and See sessions will resume September 14 at 10:15. This is the only stage that will be held during the Education hour. FaithWalk will move to 12:45 pm–2:30pm on Sunday when the Come and Explore sessions begin. Pastor Paul will host a gathering at his home on August 24 from 4-6pm. Recent guests and those interested in membership will be invited to learn about FaithWalk.
3. The Ministry Fair has been changed to the weekend of October 4/5. The theme is God's Masterpiece.
4. The training I attended in Vancouver was exceptional. As always, I came away with a few more ideas to implement in our FaithWalk process. There is a FaithWalk team training planned for September 2 at 7pm.
5. The Art Academy led by Austin Bowles will begin September 21 (3:30 to 5:30 or 4 to 6pm). This will also be a bible study. The academy will also be open to adults. The art created by the students of the Art Academy will be exhibited at Art Night 2014 on Friday, November 8. There is also a desire to make a book of the art that can be used as a fundraiser for the Youth Gathering in Detroit.
