2. Nancy McDonald is the chairperson for the 30th Anniversary Celebration. Since the actual anniversary date is November 10, celebration activities will be held the weekend of November 13—15. Suggestions for the celebration weekend: a celebration of gifts and talents on Friday night, a community beautification project on Saturday morning, a church-wide meal/program on Saturday evening, and worship (both Sunday services), all with a stewardship emphasis. These are suggestions at this point. Ministry teams will be instrumental in helping plan the details for the weekend events. The theme is “God, Grace, Giving”.

3. Michael Rickert, Amanda Rivera, Mike McMahan, Ray Betts and Matthew McMahan attended the Small Group/Bible Study Facilitator Workshop.

4. The follow-up from the Leadership Retreat is this Friday, July 24 from 6:30 to 8:30pm. Karen Harris and Amanda Rivera will help lead us through a time of discussion. We will review a compilation of the input from those who participated in the retreat and discuss next steps to include the congregation in the conversation.

5. Michael Rickert, Amanda Rivera, Ray Betts, and I leave July 29 for the catechumenate training event in Baltimore. We will return late August 1. This will be continuing education for me.

6. Lynne Cavelieri will help develop a ministry to assist with visiting and assessing needs of seniors. The Outreach team is also investigating in what ways we can assist or host the LSSN Senior Lunch program.

7. FaithWalk #7 Come and See will begin in the fall on Sunday mornings and/or Monday evening. Come and Explore will begin October 25 from 6 to 8pm on Mondays.

8. The team leader meeting has been rescheduled for Tuesday, August 4 at 6:30pm.
